

Moventas requirements for Environmental, Health and Safety

Vendor shall in all activities pay due attention and care towards the environmental protection when manufacturing and delivering the Products. Vendor shall indemnify and hold Purchaser and third parties harmless of any environmental impacts of Vendors activities and Products.

In all actions Vendor shall follow latest version of ISO 14001 standard or equivalent. Environmental risks must be evaluated, and potential accidents recognised and possibilities for any damage must be minimised. Vendor shall comply with applicable environmental laws, regulations and orders.

Vendor shall comply with following regulation: consolidated version of REACH Regulation, RoHS Directive, SCIP database and EU Conflict Minerals. Vendor shall provide all supportive technical, environmental or chemical information which is needed to minimize the environmental impact and to guarantee safety handling of Product by upstream users.

Vendor will strictly comply with Purchaser's site and security policies, as well as with all applicable employment laws, occupational health and safety laws and other rules and regulations that may apply to Vendor's delivery of the Products.

In all actions Vendor shall follow latest version of ISO 45001 standard or shall have a system to proof conformance to applicable employment, health and safety and other laws, rules and regulations in its activities. Vendor shall guarantee the continuity of its activities and deliveries. Vendor shall ensure that its employees and sub-contractors comply with such laws and procedures.

agrees to follow above said requirements.

Date:

Signature

Signature in block letter